Wonder Forge, Inc.™ Grows Business 65% in 2013; Again Named Top 100 Fastest-Growing Private Companies in Washington State

Seattle, WA (February 15, 2014) –With 65% growth for the year, Wonder Forge, Inc.™ was ranked one of Washington State’s fastest growing companies of 2013¹—the second time in recent history that the Seattle-based game maker has earned the distinction. The company heads into 2014 today with the debut of a brand new lineup of exciting games for children and families at the New York International Toy Fair. Through collaborations with some of the top names in children’s entertainment, Wonder Forge will debut games featuring a host of new licensed characters from some of today’s hottest brands.

“It’s been amazing to see what a tightly-knit team and a brilliant group of designers can accomplish,” said Jacobe Chrisman, president and company founder. “Seven years ago we celebrated the “can-do” in every kid with our first game, Dr. Seuss Cat in the Hat, I Can Do That, and today we continue our dedication to top-quality play experiences for kids and families of all ages.”

Registered media attendees can preview the complete product lineup during Toy Fair, February 15-19, at the Jacob Javits Center in New York, booth # 460.

Wonder Forge has earned 160 awards for game excellence including 4 nominations for the Toy Industry’s T.O.T.Y. Toy of the Year award in the Games category. Today the company publishes 90 games for all ages, sold at mass and specialty retail outlets nationwide and in over 10 countries.
